

GRETA WEATHERSBY, ESQ.
WEC ENERGY GROUP, INC.

Greta Weathersby is a Senior Corporate Counsel for WEC Energy Group, Inc., a leading Midwest electric and natural gas delivery company, which serves 4.4 million customers across four states. She has more than 30 years of legal experience both as in-house counsel and as a former partner in the commercial litigation group of a large law firm. Weathersby has represented commercial clients in complex litigation, regulatory, general compliance, bankruptcy, employment law, employee benefits, corporate transactions, data privacy and cybersecurity matters. She has lectured at many legal conferences on issues related to mediation, arbitration, employment law, data privacy and cybersecurity.

Weathersby has been a distinguished member active with the Chicago Bar Association (CBA). In 2021, Weathersby was a recipient of the Chicago Bar Association's Earl B Dickerson Award. Weathersby has been involved with the Commercial Litigation, Energy and Utilities Committees, served as a member of the CBA Nominating Committee, was elected to serve on the CBA BOARD OF MANAGERS between 2017 to 2019 and in 2020, she was certified as a CBA Mediator. In 2020 - 2021, Weathersby also served as a Co-Chair for the CBA Covid- 19 Member Recovery Committee, which provided scores of CLE virtual training on topics such gender bias, DACA, social responsibility, diversity and inclusion and complex alternative resolution methodologies and the like.

She also is the Secretary for the CHICAGO BAR FOUNDATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS and the Co-chair of the JEDI Committee.

Weathersby has served multiple times on the LAW ALUMNI BOARD OF GOVERNORS for LOYOLA UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO SCHOOL OF LAW. Additionally, Weathersby has been active with the Loyola University School of Law's Dean's Diversity Council to recruit and mentor law students to increase diversity within the law school student ranks.

Weathersby is a previous multiple year recipient of the First Chair Award for Top Compliance Counsel , a recipient of the Loyola University of Chicago School of Law, BLSA Donald L. Hallowell Distinguished Award for Service and an American Bar Foundation Fellow. She has received extensive training from the Conference Board of New York resulting in the grant of a Diversity and Inclusion Certificate. Other previous board appointments have included the Black Creativity Council for the Museum of Science and Industry and the Chicago Sinfonietta, the nation's most diverse orchestra.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts Cum Laude from LOYOLA UNIVERSITY and with distinction in Political Science, and a Juris Doctor from LOYOLA UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LAW SCHOOL. She is a licensed member of the Illinois State Bar; a member of the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois Bar, and a previous member of the Federal Trial Bar.

