Your Foundation

You make it possible for the CBF to serve as a central practice group for Chicago's legal community on pro bono, legal aid, and access to justice issues and enhance your ability to make an impact in a variety of ways:

Your Resource and Support

- Thanks to your support, the CBF has a team of nationally recognized lawyers on staff who collectively have decades of pro bono and access to justice experience and effectively serve as your on-call resource on these issues.
- You have a central resource to develop and implement new pro bono programs; connect with other relevant firms, companies and entities on pro bono projects; and consult when needed.
- Through the CBF Investing in Justice Campaign and the grants process it makes possible, you have a solid mechanism to strategically support the entire pro bono and legal aid system. This process ensures accountability, and promotes best practices and coordination among the many great organizations serving our community.

Your Strong Collective Voice

- Through the CBF, you come together with your colleagues to speak with one powerful voice on larger policy issues with government, the courts, and the media.
- You also have a strong leader in the larger philanthropic community on these issues, helping to raise awareness and leverage significantly more funding.

Your Innovation Lab for New Initiatives

- Along with being an effective vehicle to support proven solutions in the pro bono and legal aid system, the CBF gives you the opportunity to address the significant gaps in the system and tackle emerging issues impacting access to justice.
- Just a few examples of the innovative and nationally recognized programs your leadership and support of the CBF makes possible include the Cook County Legal Aid for Housing and Debt program (www.cookcountylegalaid.org), the CBF Justice Entrepreneurs Project (jepchicago.org), and the groundbreaking work of the CBA/CBF Task Force on the Sustainable Practice of Law & Innovation.

Cornerstone Levels

Law Firms and Corporations

These levels are set to cover year-round sponsorship of CBF events, adjusted for the size of the sponsoring firm or company. The relative levels are consistent with amounts that firms and companies have traditionally given to the CBF (collectively throughout the year) or to amounts they currently give to similar organizations, and reflect the significant leadership role the CBF plays on access to justice issues in our legal community.

All Cornerstone sponsors will be recognized on the CBF website, as well as any signage, program booklet, mass email, social media posts, and promotional ads associated with CBF's three major events at corresponding sponsor levels. CBF gets over 110,000 pageviews over the course of a year across its website, and all sponsors indirectly receive this benefit by association regardless of sponsorship level. Ticket allocations are standard for each category, with some flexibility to choose a different mix.

Pro Bono and Public Service Awards Luncheon

The Chicago Bar Association — Founded 1874

The Chicago Bar Foundation — Ensuring access to justice for all

Each July, more than 500 legal professionals come together to recognize seven attorneys in Chicago's legal community who have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to pro bono and public service. Co-sponsored by The Chicago Bar Association, the awards honor several of our profession's unsung heroes from a broad cross-section of the legal community. These awards also serve to build awareness of the impact our collective efforts can have in the lives of the most vulnerable people in our community.
